Julie,
Thanks for all the help you gave me in Spanish. Good luck to all of us next year.

Dear Julie,
So, one year ob chemistry down the drain huh? Remember all our mean words to Mr. Topp and everything we went through in that class especially bawling tests, and what about our athletic gym class?!! I hope next year we can have a more enjoyable class together.
Love ya!

Together. Our foundation, our ability to go out into the world and make something of ourselves is possible because of our being together. These past years have taught us a lot about other people and a lot about ourselves. We have grown and changed while learning many important lessons from each other. The moments we've shared and the memories we've created will always be a part of us — for Allderdice was an experience we will never forget.

As we journey down our separate paths, listening to our different drummers, we realize that it is very important for us to be able to work, play, laugh, and cry together with those we meet. We must give of ourselves in order to receive from others.

In our hearts, the senior class of Allderdice High School will be together forever.

Get Together

Love is but a song we sing, fears the way we die.
You can make the mountains ring or make the angels cry.
Though the bird is on the wing and you may not know why.
Come on people now, smile on your brother
Everybody get together, try to love one another right now.

The Fall Festival
October 19, 1979

Brightly costumed clowns opened the rally, bouncing onto the stage. The crowd cheered as the football team was introduced. The cheerleaders led the students in some old, faithful cheers. By this time, the crowd was participating in the singing and yelling. Next the Dice, the flag girls, and the majorettes performed a few routines for the audience. The band, Erebus, put the crowd into a wild frenzy. The pep rally was a success, exciting the students and football team on to a 30-8 victory over Langley High School.

American Cancer Society Swim-A-Thon October 15-19, 1979

The Pittsburgh Chapter of the American Cancer Society sponsored a Swim-A-Thon at Taylor Allderdice. Thirty Allderdice students helped to raise over two thousand dollars for this worthy charity. This fundraiser was supervised by Mr. Difebo and Mrs. Kramer. Douglas Epler won a jacket because he raised one hundred seventy-five dollars, the most among all participants. Allderdice is very proud of all the participants and sponsors.

Senior Snow Day February 1, 1980

The Senior class went to Seven Springs for the annual Snow Day. The excitement grew as we approached our destiny. As the busses climbed into the mountains the scenery of snow covered trees was all that could be seen through the windows.

The falling snow added a new diversion to those who forgot their goggles or glasses. The temperatures on the chairlifts were almost unbearable but no one seemed to mind as they watched and waved to friends skiing below.

The announcement that the busses were reloading came too soon. Everyone was happy with what the day had to offer. The togetherness of the Senior class caused Snow Day to be a memorable occasion.

Menu	Fried Soy-bean breadcrumb patties in brown liquid/ Chicken-particle Glommp/Colored jello with un-identified floating objects/Leftover cardboard trays molded into cake form, with pure sugar icing/Cheese sandwich dipped in butter, warmed on one side only.
Teachers	Please erase the week of 2/4 to 2/11 from your roll sheets It didn't go so well, and Mr. Fisher would rather not admit that it ever happened. For the staff meeting tomorrow in the auditorium, any kind of wine will be sufficient.
Seniors	The month of April is designated as senior cut day. Any senior wishing to graduate this year please stop into room 117 sometime before Friday. Be sure to bring a minimum of 10 dollars (cash only) in plain un-marked bills.
All	The administration in a conserted effort to confuse their previous position, has issued the following rules: Should a student wish to leave class for any reason he should first obtain a green copy of Form #644 and fill it out in triplicate. After doing so he should fill out the top half of teacher consent Form #782, and the bottom of parent permission Form #899. He should then distribute class voting ballots, #645, to 34% of the students and receive 88% in his favor. Only then will the student be allowed to leave the room for an emergency. This includes lacerated appendages or internal bleeding. Any student who is caught late to class by more than two minutes shall be expelled forever, and will become a social outcast for the rest of their natural lives. Students who have cut over 50% of their classes shall receive detention in the auditorium on Saturday. Students who continue to park their vehicles in the second floor annex, will be punished accordingly.
Clubs	Meeting of the Jr./Sr. harrassment of the lower classmen club Friday in room 352. Members of the Fun with Trigonometry club will meet today in the small closet near the boiler room.
Sports	All members of the Varsity Screaming at the top of your lungs in the halls team, will practice today in the 3rd floor main.
Notice	The wearing of hair is prohibited in the building. (Except by those people who wear hair as part of their outfits) Hair will be confiscated, to be picked up at the end of the week.

I knew I would go to the Prom
because I always wanted to go
I asked a very good friend
knowing we'd have a fantastic time.
I had a fancy tux with hat and cane.
It didn't take long to get ready,
Mom and Dad said I looked nice, brother laughed.
Mom wanted pictures, I said I'd get some.
I went to pick up Sandy, I hoped she was ready.
Her mom answered, boy was I nervous
I talked even though I really didn't want to speak
I prayed she was ready
As they pulled out the camera my hands were sweating
We went to Ninos for dinner. It was really nice.
We drove to the prom through the rain.
The dance floor was buzzing as we entered.
I really enjoyed dancing. I was having a great time.
Sandy was really looking great. I told her so.
Now I was more relaxed.
We went to change for the After Prom.
It didn't take long and I was feeling good.
We danced through the night.
I wanted to kiss her, to touch her
I hesitated because I was nervous.
As we went home it was bright and early.
She gave me a kiss and thanked me
I thanked her for the wonderful time
I really had a good time and will never forget the evening.

I never thought I would be asked for mine,
let alone anyone else's.
But here I was a junior
going to the Prom
Shopping for the "perfect dress"
Preparing for three hours
with help from Mom, Sis and friends.
Mom cried
Doorbell, He's here.
I wasn't ready even though I was completely dressed
My sister ran up and said,
"Ron is in a tuxedo, he looks gorgeous"
We waited patiently through pictures.
Dinner was beautiful.
We got to the Prom.
The beginning of all my fantasies,
but my shoes were killing my feet
Ron told me how nice I looked.
That meant a lot to me.
Rushing home, Between Prom and after Prom to change from formal to casual
We danced the night away.
Wanting Ron to make my insecurities fade away
But he didn't even touch me
Getting home when my sister was getting up.
I forgot to thank Ron.
Called and thanked him.
I really had a great time.
I even forgot the rain.

Serving Allderdice High School and the community

Vol. 103 No. 3 | Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania | December 19, 1979

Allderdice by numbers

By HENRY HARRIS

Taylor Allderdice High School has stood solid in its plot through 51 bone-chilling winters and 52 blood-boiling summers. The building has been endlessly vandalized, arsonized, graffitized, and M-80-ed in its time.

Allderdice has seen the depression of the thirties, the war of the forties, the complications of the fifties, the riots of the sixties, and finally, the smog of the seventies.

In spite of all this, Allderdice and its staff and faculty have faithfully produced fifty-one graduating classes, or what amounts to about 22,000 pupils. Adding that number to the faculty and staff, there would be enough people to fill the Civic Arena's seats from floor to roof 1.1 times over. Still, it stands firm, majestic, and far from expiration.

For example, did you know that if you are an average Allderdice student you have already spent over 330 hours in the building this year alone? You have climbed over 400 feet of vertical steps, and walked through the halls from class to class a distance of almost twenty miles.

Even though most students take the building for granted and just try to grin-and-bear the four years he / she will attend Allderdice, to examine the situation in a numerical and statistical way provides interesting, shocking, and even depressing facts about one's stay here.

If the average senior rides a bus to and from school every day for four years paying 45 cents a trip, he will accumulate a four year loss to PAT of $299. If he spends 25 cents every two days at the candy machines, after four years he will have granted the Bev-O-Matic Corporation $88, a tidy sum that most probably could have been put toward a much more profitable purpose.

Take the daily diligent walker. To and from school a mile at a time. As a graduating senior, he will have walked 1,390 miles (give or take a ride or two), or the equivalent of the distance from Pittsburgh to Amirillo, Texas. A very interesting fact for thought: if you make four or five stops at your locker each day, you open and shut that metal door more times than you open and close the front door of your home. In addition, if your folks work afternoons and sleep evenings, you spend more time with your first four teachers combined than you do with your parents.

Pirates shine on

By DAVID PAUL
Sports Editor

A different feeling spread through the halls of Allderdice on October 18.

Students paraded proudly around the halls showing off their black and gold garb. Everybody seemed happier than usual, a little sluggish maybe, but still very happy.

For those of you with a short memory, October 18 was the day after the Pirates 4-1 victory in the seventh and deciding game of the World Series, a victory to be savored by all for years to come.

The mighty Buccos started the series slowly; falling behind three games to one before anyone could say Howard Cosell. But there was little to fear in the Steel City. The Pirates had won three in a row before, and they could do it again. Oh those mighty, mighty, Buccos: they had 'em all the way. Only four other teams had overcome such a deficit in World Series history. The Pirates seemed destined to be number five. The 1925 Pirates won the series over the Washington Senators in a similar fashion.

With the exception of the 1975 series classic this year's Pirate-Oriole confrontation had to be considered the most dramatic series of the decade. The world watched as Willie Stargell proudly led his team and city on to victory. Although 38 years old, Captain Willie slammed three home runs, collected 12 hits, (seven of those for extra bases), and batted .400. These statistics as well as his uncontested leadership made him unanimously the series' MVP. Still, Willie would be the first to admit he was only one of 25 exceptional men, affectionately known as the FAMILY.

A look at the 70's

By IRA NATHENSON

When we return from Christmas cation, a new decade will be on us; to suffer, survive or prosr as we choose.

But what about the 1970's? We ent a lot of time in gasoline lines.
didn't matter, though, because e knew we'd be dead soon from ccharine anyway. If we were le to survive that, we risked get-g into Studio 54 in our $75 French signer jeans and silk shirts.

But seriously, the 1970's were,
d still are, as we head into the 0's, a period of people looking comfort and reassurance in the ues of yesterday. Two of our st popular TV shows: Happy ys and Laverne and Shirley, are in a "perfect," nostalgic past ere Richie Cunningham never s a zit and there is always a py ending.

People are looking back to the st for a direction to the future.
e Beatles' mystique is still going ong despite the fact that John, ul, George and Ringo have not yed together in nearly ten ars. The everlasting reunion mors persist; the most recent ing a "benefit concert" for the at people.

Other examples of our search into the past are two of our most highly regarded television shows, "The Waltons" and "A Little House on the Prairie," where honesty and decency are "the way."

Of course, it is understandable why people think like this. Americans don't have that blind faith they once had, for better or for worse. We went from the horrors of Altamont, to the bombings of Cambodia, to the scandal at Watergate.

We went from the kidnapping of Patty Hearst, to the horrors at Guyana, to the near-catastrophe at Three-Mile Island. We reached deep into our pocketbooks to pay for gas once we reached the end of the line; that is, if we were lucky enough to find an open gas station.

Of course, the 1970's weren't ten straight years of agony and despair. Americans developed a new breed of comedian called "The funniest man in the world." The first "King Funny" was Gerald Ford look-alike Chevy Chase. We later changed our minds and made "wild and crazy" Steve Martin the funniest man. (John Belushi was a close runner up.) But this year King Funny is no other than Mr. Nano-Nano himself, Robin Williams.

Between the Farrahs, and the Cheryls, and the Suzannes, little boys didn't know whom to ogle, and little girls didn't know whose hairstyle to copy. But we all tuned in to watch our "Angels," whoever they happened to be that week. This year, cute mouthy kid shows were in. Cops and violence were out. Jiggles were in (or all over, depending on your point of view.) NFL Cheerleaders received more attention than our three-time Superbowl Champion Steelers.

But moments like these: a Superbowl victory, a comeback in the World Series, an Arab-Israeli peace treaty; these are the moments to cherish. These are the times our children will remember when they search in our past for security and reassurance, as we are doing now.

America celebrated its 200th birthday this decade in a grand fashion, barring patriotic "souveniers" such as red, white, and blue toilet paper. Yet, the America of today is a world away from that of ten years ago, and the world a decade from now may be a universe from today. We'll have new leaders, new enemies, and new problems to confront. Leave the shocking predictions to the National Enquirer. Let's just hope we don't reach Orwell's 1984 during the next ten years.

What do you do after school ?

By BINNEY JANNETTA
and
BECKY LUBOVE

What do frisbees, chess, Mr. Bill, and equal rights have in common? They are all part of Allderdice's after school club roster.

If frisbee is your thing, you're in luck with the Frisbee Club (255, Mr. Padden). Besides just getting together to throw around a frisbee, Allderdice has its own Ultimate Frisbee team that actually competes. It is a fun way to meet people as well as improve on your frisbee skills.

The Ski Club (162, Mr. DeSano) is super if you like the feel of cold snow against your face while speeding downhill. Allderdice's largest club, it takes groups on skiing trips every Tuesday and Friday during the winter months. Membership is $10. So hurry and rac eon downhill before the snow season is over.

Oh nooooo! It's the Mr. Bill Club (414, Ms. Rice). Help Mr. Bill help crippled children by joining in and giving your support. Allderdice's newest club, it is off to a slow beginning, but is looking forward to a hopeful future.

Let the Key Club (467, Mr. Tarantino) unlock that soft spot in you. This club raises money for needy charities, helps underprivileged people in homes and hospitals, and even has fun doing it. Conventions and banquets are held for members throughout the year.

The Drama Club (372, Ms. Palumbo) has a fine script of activities this year and has already begun to rehearse them. Anyone is welcome to try a hand at acting and get involved in plays, workshops, and various other aspects of the theatre.

Joining the National Honor Society (119, Dr. Litman) is a great goal for which to work. You must be a sophomore, junior, or senior to apply and have QPA's of 3.75, 3.5 or 3.25, respectively. If you would like to help out with in school and out of school community services, this is the place to start.

To make a good move, join the Chess Club (358, Mr. Hirsh). Anyone is eligible to compete in the club's two leagues. The scholastic league competes with surrounding high schools, while the industrial league competes with area corporations. Join now and call it a checkmate.

Do you like to argue? If so, join the Debate Club (Library, Mr. Cazen) where arguing is the name of the game. Whether you are experienced or not, there is a space for you either in the varsity or novice team. Intrastate competition takes place on Saturdays when Allderdice usually

GIRL'S SOCCER TEAM

The Allderdice soccer club has just finished another season with one of our four teams in post season playoffs and two more in contention for playoff spots. Five of our players are being considered for Western Pa. all star teams.

The Club has many talented and enthusiastic players who would do well for themselves and the school if given a chance. To get that chance they must have the support of the adults within the community.

Soccer is not a recognized school sport at Allderdice and, so much as we would like it to be, there is no evidence that it will become so in the near future.

The Soccer Club at Allderdice, therefore, must rely on volunteers for its supervision, coaching, and organization. At the moment we have only a few adults who are willing to donate time so that our club can operate.

The philosophy of the Soccer Club has been to operate sufficient teams, so that all interested students may play. It is becoming impossible to continue operating in this manner, as demonstrated by a situation encountered recently.

This fall we had one weekend on which all four teams were scheduled to play on Sunday afternoon, one at South High Stadium, one at Elizabeth Forward, one at Connellsville and the other at Heidelburg. Five of the teams at Elizabeth Forward had no way to get home, and were stranded in McKeesport. I got a call from them at about 6 p.m. and had to drive 45 miles round trip to get them to their homes.

The only way in which the club can continue to offer a chance to play to all interested students if for parents and friends to come forward and assist in the week to week operations of the club.

Each team should have a coach and an adult manager. In addition it is necessary to have adults to assist in the organization of teams, to attend league meetings each month and coordinate transportation arrangements. All parents should be available from time to time to help transporting the teams to game sites so that we don't have a few parents doing all the work every week.

Allderdice has the student talent to field one of the best soccer teams in the area. This potential cannot be realized if we must cut back on the program because of lack of support.

Allderdice Girls Team Has A Ball

"We've created a monster. But basketball can be fun."

Janet Davis, Allderice girls coach

Just call them the Good Time Girls. For that is what the girls basketball team at Allderdice has become.

At the prestigious Snowflake Classic, which the Dragonettes wrapped up with a championship, a spectator was moved to present Janet Davis, the Allderdice coach, with what she considered the epitome of compliments:

Press Box

By Dave Herbst

"I really enjoyed watching your team," the spectator said. "They look like they're having fun."

The truth, Janet Davis will tell you, does not belie the appearances. In 1980, the Allderdice girls very definitely are out to have fun. Janet commands it.

"Winning and losing a basketball game," she says, "is not the most important thing in the world." What is most important, she has come to decide, is life itself.

The idea is not terribly original. But it is to Davis, who describes herself — pre-1979-80 — as "one of these coaches who could call a timeout and really light into the kids. ... When we lost an important game, I'd go home and brood on it, dwell on it."

That was before "the accident" — a showdown with an out-of-control Port Authority bus last June on Bigelow Boulevard near the Bloomfield Bridge.

"I thought I was dead," Janet says. "Special services took 80 minutes to unpin me."

Physically, she still wears reminders of the ordeal that kept her out of school for the first two months. Her right leg, she says, still swells and blackens.

Philosophically, the incident, the hour-and-a-half of entrapment in a demolished automobile, has changed her life.

"I was very thankful to God that I survived that," she says. "I realize the importance of living life one day at a time. I found that out in a hurry."

Upon her coaching style, Janet says, the change has been marked. "Now we learn by our mistakes. We go back and adjust. Now I don't have it in me to scream, or dwell on defeat. After all, basketball is just a game. When the buzzer sounds, it's over."

And when it is over, the Allderdice girls usually are winners. Their 37-33 victory over North Hills in the Snowflake final last weekend was the Dragonettes' 11th success in 14 games. All three losses were to teams in the Snowflake field.

The fast start represents a continuation of success at Allderdice, which has had winning seasons four of the last five years under Janet's guidance.

This time the success, if spurred by the concept of fun, is fueled by the slickest little guard in Western Pennsylvania girls basketball. Her name is Mary Myers, and as one coach put it, "You give her her 30 and stop the rest of them."

In fact, Mary is averaging 27 points a game, but Davis puts more emphasis on the 5-6 senior's floor play.

"Mary is concentrating this year on her assists," the coach says. "She is going major college, there's no doubt about it. And a guard her size has to be able to get the ball inside to the other people."

Mary, who can thwart double-teaming tactics with behind-the-back, between-the-legs dribbles without breaking stride, has been getting the ball to others on the team with consistency. A returning member of The Press Finest Five, she is averaging eight assists a game.

Many of those assists result in baskets by Renee Buckins, a 5-9 senior whom Davis calls "our secret weapon."

"People come out and key on Mary," the coach says, "and then Renee goes to work."

Renee is the Dragonettes' second leading scorer (16½-point average) and their leading rebounder (13).

Two other starters, Phyllis Allen and Mary Vaughn, are just under double figures in scoring average. Furthermore, with the aid of Lorinda Hall, the Dragonettes have been outrebounding everybody they've played.

Which all goes to prove it doesn't take whips or words at ear-piercing decibels to get productivity out of a basketball team.

Allderdice Clinches Section 1

Tyrone Chapman, Allderdice, end — A junior with good size, Chapman caught 28 passes and made 53 tackles. Allderdice Coach John McNertney calls him, "one of the best ends I've ever had here."

Before Derek Moore and Frank Do arrived at Allderdice, the Squirrel H school had a long history of losing s sons and being the basketball version a punching bag for City League pow like Schenley.

Athletes of the Wee

But, in the last three years, with t dynamic duo in the lineup, the Drago have become the slayers, not the slaye

The Post-Gazette Athletes of the We have led Allderdice to a 52-15 reco while rewriting the school's scoring a rebounding records.

Dobbs, a 6-foot-5 guard, has a reco 1,337 career points. Moore, a 6-6, 21 pound muscleman, is the first player Allderdice history to have 1,000 poin and rebounds. He currently has 1,1 points and 1,045 rebounds. This seaso both are averaging 19 points a game

Last week, the two helped le Allderdice, 11-2 and the Post-Gazette fourth-ranked high school team, to t Central Catholic Holiday Tourname championship. The Dragons crush Seton LaSalle the first night, 79-49, th belted 10th-ranked Central in the fina 75-59.

Moore had 37 points, 38 rebounds du ing the tourney and took home the Mo Valuable Player trophy. Dobbs contri uted 40 points, 16 assists.

"I've been asked 1,000 times, 'Who better: Dobbs or Moore?' Allderdic Coach Larry Neiberg says.

"I can't answer that. They are two e tirely different players. Dobbs is coach's player. He knows what it take to win and he goes out and does it.

"Moore is the fans' player. He slam dunks and grabs rebounds over the rim The fans love to see Derek play. Actu ally, it's great to have both on the tean

"You get two kids like them once in lifetime. Don't get me wrong. You nee more than two players to win, but thes kids give you a heckuva start."

Both Dobbs and Moore are major-co lege prospects. Dobbs has made offici recruiting visits to Penn State, Villanov and Clemson. He has visits scheduled fo Duke and Marquette. Moore has visite Penn State and Texas Christian. Late this month, he will go to St. Johns, Lon Beach and Virginia Tech. Both player say they are also considering Pitt.

Today is very important for bot Dobbs and Moore as the Dragons open u City League play with Schenley Allderdice has not beaten the Spartans i more than two decades.

"It's a real big game for us," Moor says. "If we can get by them there ma be no stopping us. In school, it's all any body's talking about."

Says Dobbs, "The game means a lot t our whole team. We've heard it for long time that Allderdice can't bea Schenley. This is our chance."

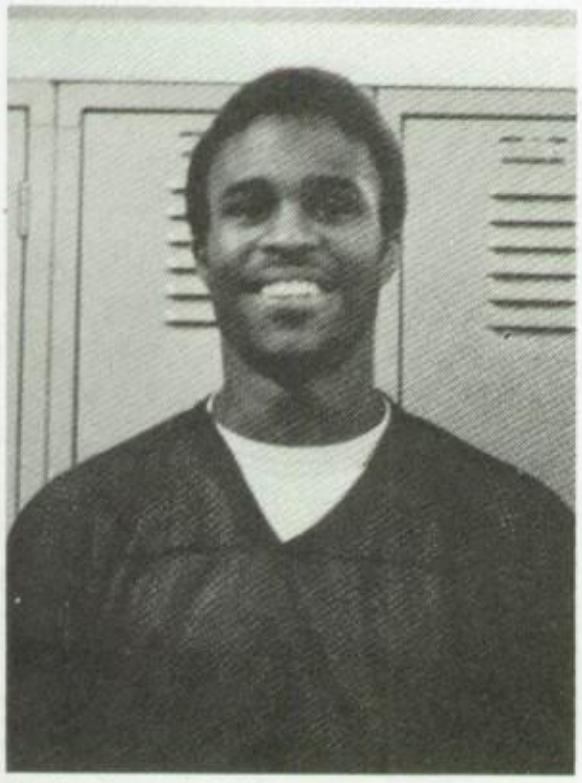
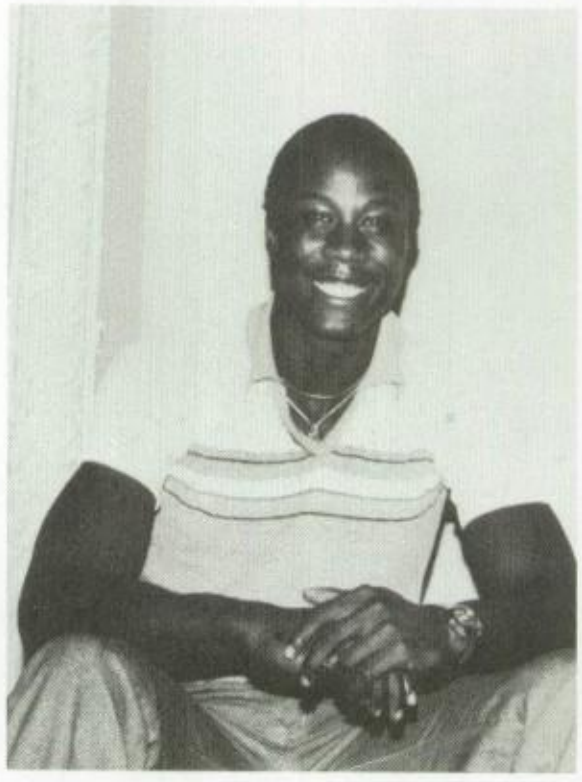
Champions

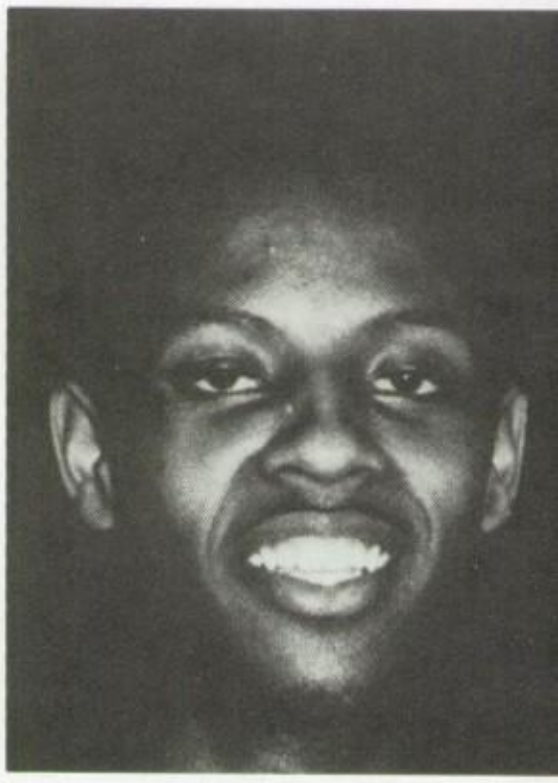
These pages are dedicated to those athletes who have performed beyond "the call of duty." Through their performance these athletes have provided us with many exciting moments.



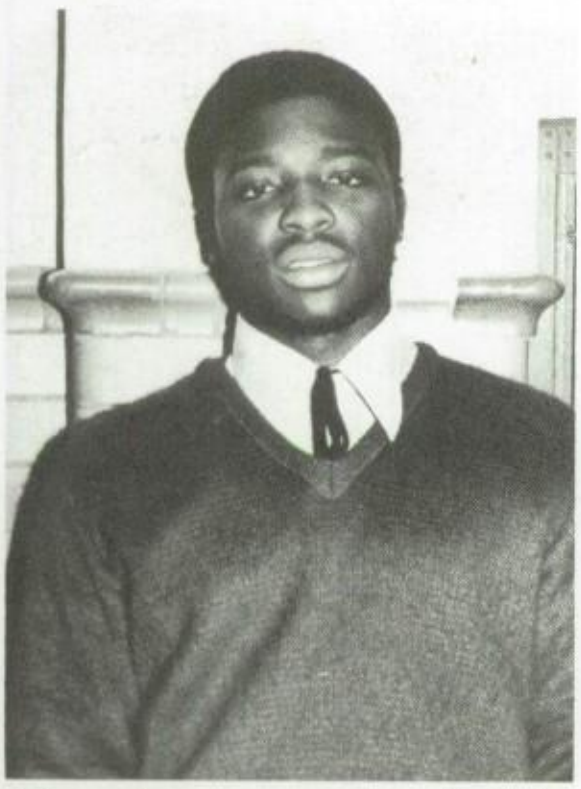
Frank "Happy" Dobbs was one of the most sought-after recruits of all time from Allderdice. Rated as the top Western Pennsylvania Prep School prospect, "Happy" was also a recipient of the Post Gazette Athlete-of-the-Week honors. As Allderdice's all-time leading scorer, he was a big part of our 1-2-3 punch.



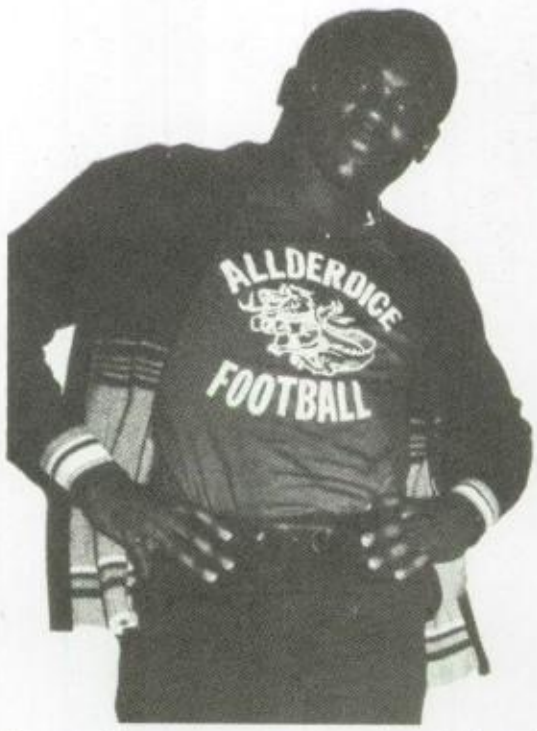
Derek "Intern" Moore also received Athlete-of-the-Week honors. The "Intern" was named the fourth top Western Pennsylvania Prep School prospect and became the first Allderdice student to get 1000 points and grab 1000 rebounds. As a part of Allderdice's 1-2-3 punch, Derek electrified the crowd with his amazing slam-dunks.



Robert "Nipsy" Dunson was the playmaker o our fabulous basketball team. As point guar and part of the 1-2-3 punch, "Nipsy" con trolled the tempo of the game. He contribute the excellent ball handling and shooting tha was necessary to lead our team to victory.



Anthony Cheeks was a member of both the football and basketball teams. As a running back, Anthony received All-City Honorable Mention. His skill helped to lead Allderdice to their 3-3-2 mark. This great improvement was made possible by Anthony's nose for the goal-line. His quickness enabled him to be a member of the basketball team.



Tyrone Chapman was a member of the Allderdice football team. He was named all-city tight end because of his good hands and excellent blocking ability. Since Tyrone is only a junior he will be back next year and lead Allderdice to another fantastic season.

Linda Gottlieb was the powerhouse of the girl tennis team. Her outstanding ability has ena bled her to make the state championships fiv years in her four years at Allderdice. As captai in her senior year, Linda provided the muc needed leadership for the other girls on th team, and her excellent singles play is comple mented by her ability as a doubles player.

Mary Meyers played a major role in the girls basketball 1-2 punch. Mary helped Allderdice gain state recognition when she was named Post Gazette Athlete-of-the-Week, twice. Mary, who has been highly recruited, is planning on trying out for the Olymp eader, Mary controlled the game with her excellent shooting and rebounding ability. She s undoubtedly the best girls basketball player Allderdice ever had.

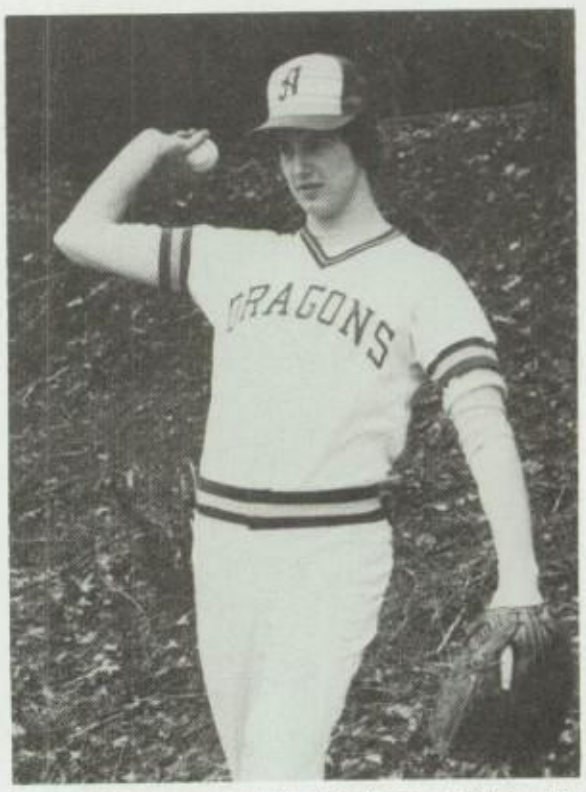
Renee Buckins was the other half of the girls basketball 1-2 punch. With her amazing quickness and strong rebounding Renee helped in providing Allderdice with a fantastic girls team. These talents, plus her excellent shooting ability are major factors in why Renee received college scholarship offers.



Aaron Krause was Allderdice's ace pitcher. He approached all batters with a variety of pitches that showed his superb control and speed. Aaron is also an excellent hitter who is highly recruited and may go into the Pro Draft.

Gary Green was undoubtedly one of the best baseball players to play on the Allderdice team. Not only is Gary highly recruited by colleges and universities, but also he could very well be selected in the Pro Draft. His excellent fielding at shortstop is complemented by his .500 batting average.

Katie Holland is the most powerful swimmer on the team. As only a sophomore, Katie already holds numerous city swimming records, including the 500-yard freestyle and 100-yard butterfly. In the next two years Katie will provide the leadership and motivation to continue Allderdice's string of success.

Kathy Howell is also a swimmer for the girls team. Like Katie, Kathy started quickly by breaking city records in the Individual Medley and 100 yard breaststroke. Since she is only a sophomore, Kathy will add the power to our swim team for two more years. Kathy also lettered in softball.

We thank these athletes as well as every student who participated in Allderdice's Athletic program. Every one of you has made us proud to attend Allderdice.

TAYLOR ALLDERDICE H

Underclassmen

My Freshman Year . . .

Allderdice was big and very crowded at first. I kept thinking that I would get lost. Now that I know my way around I like Allderdice a lot.

Big, interesting, exciting, a challenge.

I think it's a big responsibility because you have to be on your own.

After having no windows at Reizenstein, Allderdice is a breath of fresh air.

I like the vending machines and the silly people.

It's fun but then again I like spinach.

Full of excitement, I am learning and meeting new people all the time.

Great, different, cool, wow . . .

Allderdice has an atmosphere different than any other school I have ever attended. The people know how to act like adults.

My Sophomore Year . . .

This is the year when you have to get serious about your work. However life is not always working hard.

You can really have a good time in this place.

Everybody can expect to grow more and more.

A most worthwhile experience.

A lot harder than last year even though I also had a better time.

It's okay I guess. I would not want to do it again.

I think we need more snow days.

It was fun and hard. But it's more fun than hard.

Things are a lot better because now I know the routine.

I just like to look at those gorgeous 11th grade boys.

Very crucial.

I love "Hook."

A very rewarding experience.

It's the first step into the future. As they say we have only just begun.

School takes up too much of a sophomore's extracurricular time.

It's as good and worthwhile as you choose to make it.

It's school, what can I say.

Next year I'll be able to ask a date to the Semi.

My Junior Year . . .

This is the best year because you get more privileges than a sophomore or freshman, and none of the responsibilities of a senior.

Only one more year to go till we have our ski day, our prom, and class rings. We are going to be seniors!

It means I had to get good grades to get into college.

Most fun I ever had with my clothes on.

A lot of nice looking girls.

A year when we were supposed to increase our knowledge turned out to be a year when we only learned to cut class.

Three down and one to go.

It was a lot more fun than my freshman and sophomore years. It went a lot faster.

Not enough Holidays.

Allderdice is making the impossible become possible.

It definitely picked up around June 5th.

So close but yet so far away.

Learning is a complex process. We learn from teachers, we learn from texts, and we learn from our fellow students. Our classmates can teach us much in the fields of friendship, leadership, and, especially, service.

Our classroom experience provides us with the knowledge we shall use after high school, but the classroom cannot teach us the will to serve. Meaningful contact with people, in leading or following, in compromising or sacrificing, encourages us to give of our talents, now and when we graduate into the adult world.

The Varden Portrait

For some people, a diploma is not enough.

Some people feel that there should be more to graduation. More than just a diploma. A timeless commemorative of your graduation is the Varden portrait.

Your Varden portrait will speak with distinction. For over 30 years, the name Varden has meant the ultimate in portraiture. When you graduate, don't settle for less.

Reflections

We have all been affected by the events of this year. The international crisis, the national problems, the music, movies, television and sports were some of the happenings that have been part of our lives. These happenings, their effects, and their memories will be a part of us forever.

At this time the Iranians are holding approximately fifty Americans hostage. Although every day new hope is given that the hostages will be released, the crisis continues. President Carter struggles to secure the release of the hostages while the country stands extremely united. As the crisis continues another international problem started. This was the Russian takeover of Afghanistan. This takeover prompted the United States to boycott wheat and other major items exported to the Soviet Union. It also prompted the likely boycott of the Summer Olympics by America and its allies. International crisis was not the only thing on our minds.

The national events of this year also played a major role in our lives. Probably the most important was President Carter's call for the reinstitution of registration for the draft. He wants all males and females between the ages of 18-20 to register. Another item in the news frequently was Inflation as it hit 13%. Gold was no exception to the constant rising of prices as it topped $800.00 an ounce. In Pennsylvania, the "accident" at Three Mile Island prompted nationwide protest over the use of nuclear energy. However, President Carter feels that nuclear power is important to make the U.S. energy independent. This goal became increasingly important as OPEC continued to raise their prices. All of these events will have a major impact upon our lives. However, there are other things besides government that affected us.

Music played a major role in our lives this past year. We've steered in a new wave of punk rock and disco . . . but rock and roll will never die. Although groups like Blondie and Cheap Trick gained popularity, old favorites like Led Zeppelin, Bruce Springsteen, and The Who remained at the top of the charts. We danced to the beat of the Bee Gees, Donna Summer, and Michael Jackson. We listened to the long awaited new albums of Fleetwood Mac, Jefferson Starship and Pink Floyd. The live performances of these outstanding artists were bright spots to all of us in 1979.

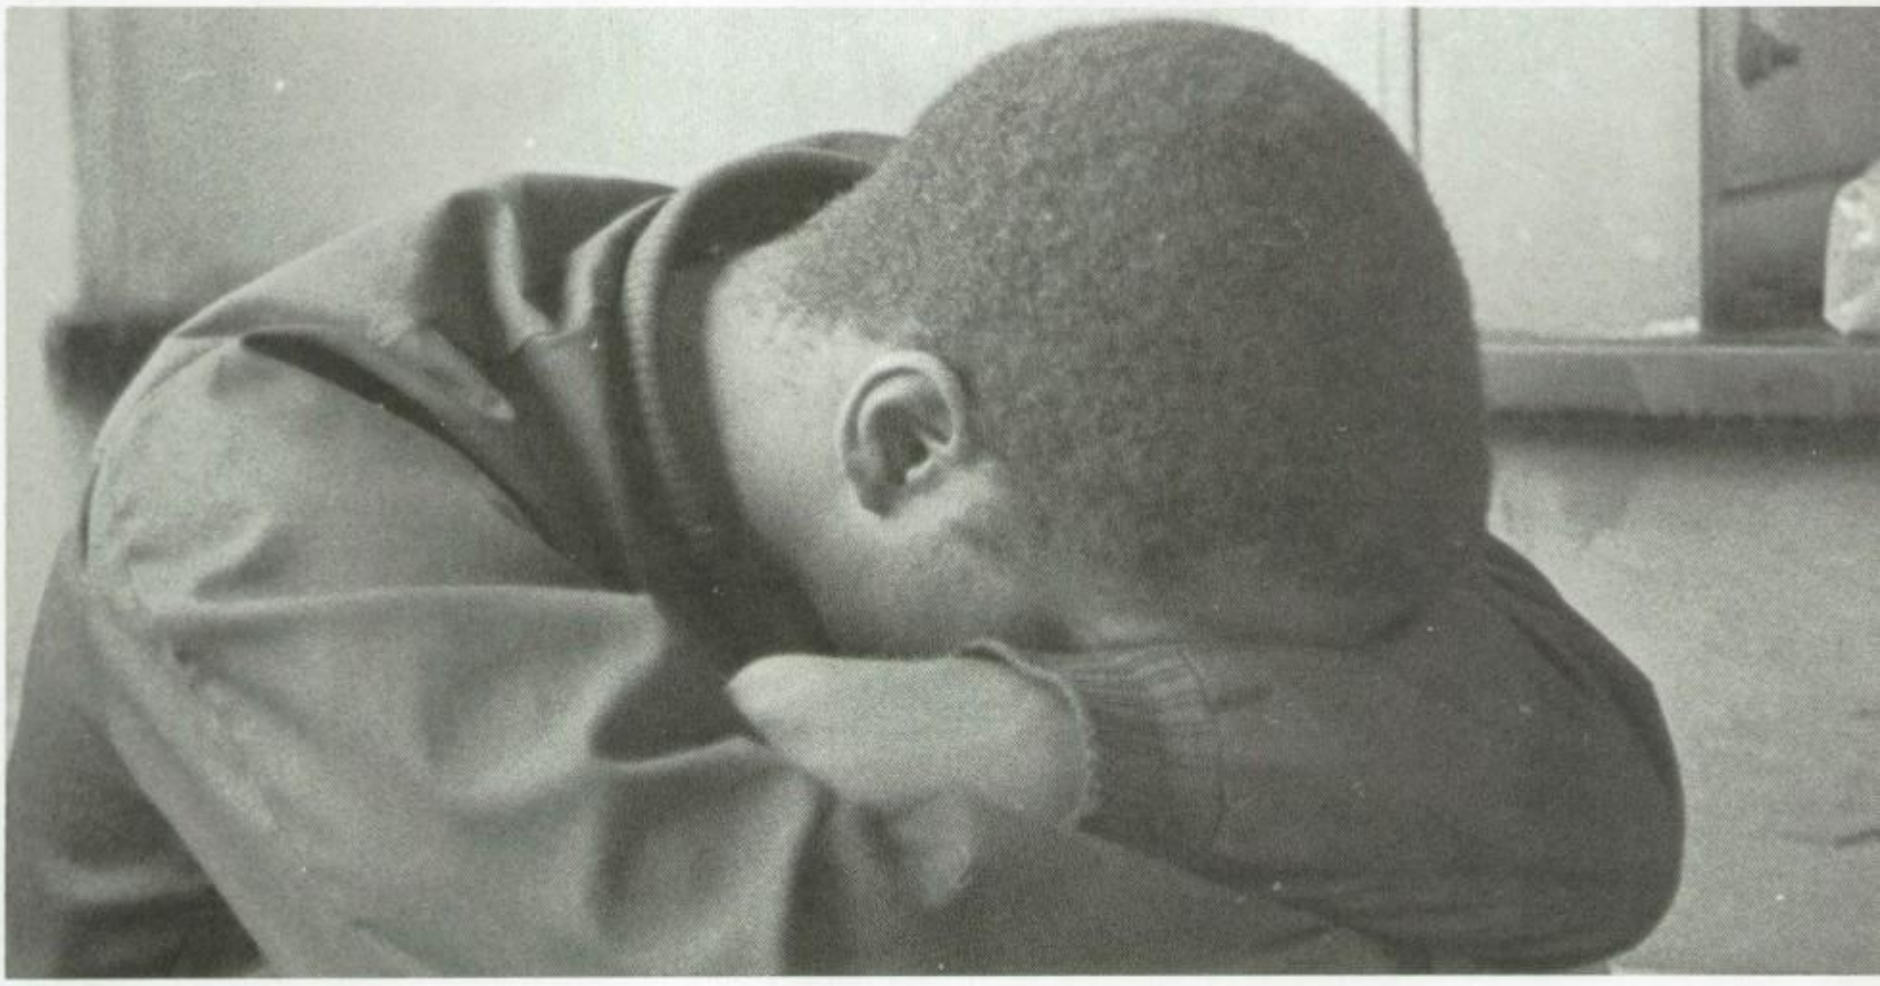
The movies of 1979 covered all categories and captivated all audiences. Science fiction movies such as "Star Trek" and "Alien" caught the attention of the science fiction fanatics. Those who love a good horror story could sit tensely through "When A Stranger Calls" and "Amityville Horror." "Breaking Away", "The Main Event", "Kramer vs. Kramer", and "A Little Romance" were entertaining, enjoyable and captivating movies that gave you the opportunity to sit back, relax and enjoy. Movies provided the perfect escape that is necessary in this sometimes crazy world we live in.

For those of us who couldn't afford the $3.75 for the theaters, the television set or the "boob tube" was much more inviting. The top shows of 1979 were a combination of the new hits and the old favorites. Some of the top shows of the year included: "Mash", "Soap", and "The Johnny Carson Show." In drama we were entertained by "The White Shadow", "Lou Grant", and "Family." The old favorites in the comedy department included "Happy Days", "Three's Company", "Taxi", "Mork and Mindy", "One Day at a Time" and a new series, "Benson." "60 Minutes," was the best documentary and educational program in the country. Television offers entertainment and is a favorite pastime for many of us.

For those of us in the city of Champions, sports played a major role in our lives. The Pirates captured the World Series in seven games with our captain and "father," Willie Stargell, leading the way. The Steelers had a tough battle, but defeated the Rams 31-19 to win Superbowl XIV. With the big plays, Bradshaw to Swann and Bradshaw to Stallworth the Steelers captured their fourth Superbowl title in six years. The Pittsburgh Penguins and The Spirit are both on their way with a promise of making the playoffs. "Love-ya Black and Gold."

The happenings of 1979 and their effects were not all pleasant but "along with the sunshine, there's got to be a little rain sometimes." You may read this now and not think it is very important but in the many years ahead this small piece of memorabilia will bring about many memories.

We all have dreams,



but where are we really going?

Whether we go to college,

or begin to work

We will always rely upon our past
for reference,

and a major part of our past is Allderdice.

The basic studies were just a part of our experience.

Working with people, making friends, developing our abilities
all of these opportunities existed

Even though some of us
may not have enjoyed Allderdice,

we definitely learned and benefited from it.

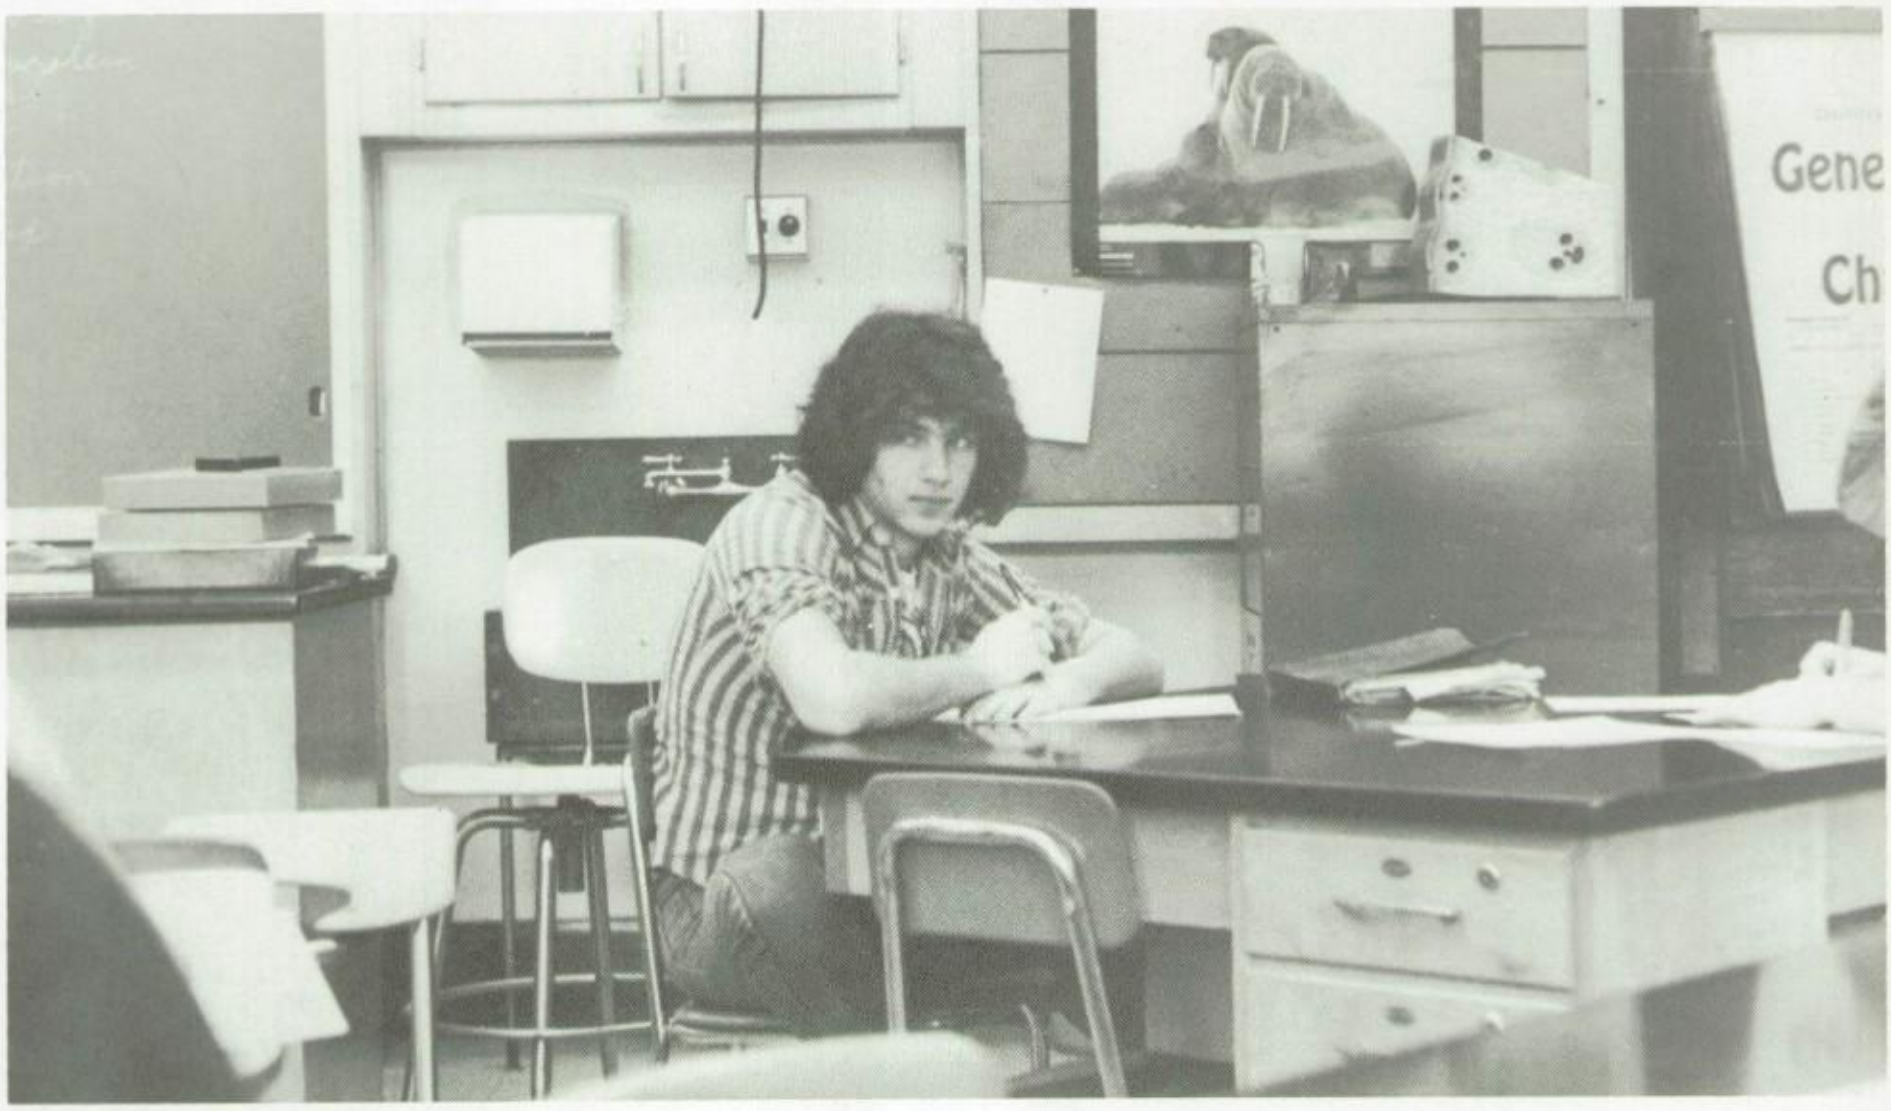
Whether it was scholastically



or athletically

Allderdice is number one.

My interest is in the future
because I am going to spend the rest of my life there.

— Charles F. Kettering

We call them the "good old days" because we weren't good, we weren't old, and we were talking about the nights.

I was sitting by a waterfall
And I noticed how the rocks had been worn away
From the water continuously rolling by.
And I asked myself then,
what will happen to you and I?
Will the feeling we share
be lost in the distance that separates us?
And like the rocks,
Will our friendship be worn away
by the new faces, new experiences and the time continuously rolling by?
Then in the midst of the waterfall I saw a rainbow
and was reminded of all our beautiful moments together
And I knew that nothing will ever make me forget
How much you mean to me.

I'm glad that you're one of many friends that I've made here at good 'ol T.A. Ha!

HI THERE...

Dearest Julie,

See, we really haven't gotten a chance to 'know' each other - But I'm sure that time will come! Before you know it we'll be good friends instead of good aquaintences! Ha! Call me sometime (762-7876) and we can just talk! Maybe we can even go out - Do you really think it would be wise to be seen in public w/ me - hahahee!! Only 21 more days until Finals and the majority of the 10th grade workers will be over! Enjoy these last weeks of school (if possible!) I hope we can develope into a great 'Senior' friendship

↑ Pant Pant Ha!

Greetings & Salutations

Dear Julie,
Hi! I'm really glad we became buddies this year. Two more years in homeroom! wow! mr. snubert will be tired of us by 12th grade!
Have a terrific summer.
Love,
Jenny

Dear Julie,
I'm really glad
I met you this years and that we have become good friends.
I'll always remember
you & keep in touch.

Dear Julie,
I'm really glad we met this year
and became friends.
Sorry about the
Mrs. Kogut incident.
Have a great summer
Love ya
Tammy

Dear Julie,
Sharing books in Geometry
sometimes even made the class
O.K. but the main thing was I met you. To a good friend. Have a boring summer (original huh?)
Sike, have a terrific summer. See ya next year.
Love,
Julie

Dear Julie
It was good being friends with you this year

Dear Julie
It was a pleasure
working with you
Really good shearing
You while being in the same English class while trying to get through the crazy
Lunatictic stuff of our teacher
Mrs. Kogut Well, it was really great knowing You this year and I'm sure we can remain Friends
throughout the years
Love
Julie I'm glad we became friends, Thank God Chem. is almost over, huh? I want to be so

Dear Julie,
I'm sure how what to right with will ill just have ever a while
I ran out of

Dear Julie,
You dumb schmuck
Love ya
Jenny

Dear Julie, Remember all the fun times in Chem
I'm sure you will never forget him. Good luck always! See ya around.
Love,
Julie

Dear Florence,

Since I know your going to read this I wrote this little Passage to you. Your daughter is an unusual girl. Since I've known her since birth I won't write anything to intimidate her.

Love,
Steve

P.S. You shouldn't be reading this year book!

Julie
To a really good friend. I've known you for many years and hope we be friends for a long time. Don't forget all the fun times we've had together. Love, Steve

P.S. I still think your dog is queer.

Julie,
Don't forget Softball 88 Softball 89

Dear Julie,
I wont be cliche' and say how glad I am we met... Keep it shakin' chick!
